- This detailed map of Big Bend National Park illustrates the park's extensive trail network, including the Chisos Mountains Loop, Santa Elena Canyon Trail, and various backcountry routes. It also shows major roads like Highway 118 and 170, and visitor centers such as the Persimmon Gap, Panther Junction, Chisos Basin, and Castolon. The map highlights the park's unique geography, including the Chisos Mountains, Sierra del Carmen, and the Rio Grande. Key landmarks like the Santa Elena Canyon Overlook, Mule Ears View Point, and the Rio Grande Village are marked. The map also shows the proximity to the United States-Mexico border and the Chihuahuan Desert. A legend in the top left corner defines symbols for roads, trails, and facilities. A scale bar and north arrow are also present.
